COURTS

The City of Manassas Park residents are served by three Virginia Courts: the Circuit Court of the 31st District, the General District Court for the County of Prince William, and the Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court. Judges for these courts are appointed on an as-needed basis by the Virginia General Assembly.

The General District Court for the County of Prince William hears cases involving traffic violations and criminal misdemeanors. City of Manassas Park court cases are heard on Thursdays at 9:00 A.M. Since the General District Court is not of record, all cases are heard by a judge. There are no jury trials at this level.

For information regarding prepayments for traffic violations, please call 703-792-6111. This number has a 24-hour informational recording. For more information on court records or case scheduling, please call the Clerk's Office during normal business hours at 703-792-6141. Visit their web site at www.pwcgov.org/gd.

The Circuit Court hears felonies, civil suits, divorce cases and appeals from lower courts. For information about case scheduling, please call the Clerk of the Circuit Court at 703-792-6025. The Clerk's Office can also provide information on marriage licenses by calling 703-792-6040; notary services and passport applications 703-792-6045; and state administration probate of wills 703-792-6085.

Cases involving offenses committed by juveniles in the City of Manassas Park, including traffic citations, are conducted at the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. This same court also hears cases concerning offenses by adults against juveniles and other cases such as non-support, assault and child custody. For more information about Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court please call 703-792-6160.

All the courts mentioned above, are located in the Prince William County Judicial Center, 9311 Lee Avenue, Manassas, Virginia 20110.

FIRE AND RESCUE

To report a fire or obtain emergency aid, call 911.

The Fire and Rescue Department is a full service organization providing fire suppression, fire inspection and investigation services, basic and advanced life support (ALS) emergency medical transport, fire and life safety education along with coordinating the city's emergency management/disaster response program.

The fire station, located at 9080 Manassas Drive, is centrally located in the city providing our citizens with an average response time of 3 minutes 30 seconds from time of dispatch to arrival of the first unit for emergency calls within the city limits. The Department routinely staffs a Medic Unit and Fire Pumper daily, with the ability when fully staffed on the duty shift, to respond with a second Medic Unit for concurrent medical calls or staff the Quint or second/reserve pumper for structure fire related calls for service. The Quint is a combination truck carrying a 100 foot aerial platform, a complete complement of ground ladders along with a water tank, pump, hose and nozzles similar to a fire pumper. The Department participates in a regional mutual/automatic aid agreement with Prince William County and City of Manassas for emergency services.

The Department operates with a career staff of 28 uniformed personnel and one civilian position. There are 24 of these personnel assigned to Operations, working a three platoon system consisting of 24 hours on-duty, 48 hours off-duty with eight personnel assigned to each shift. All uniformed staff is trained at a minimum as Firefighters and Emergency Medical Technicians-Basic level (EMT) with at least two personnel per shift trained to the EMT-Intermediate or Paramedic level providing ALS care which includes the ability to monitor cardiac rhythms, provide intravenous solutions, drug therapy and cardiac defibrillation as needed.

The Department hosts and provides training for the city's Citizen Emergency Response Team (CERT). CERT members receive basic fire suppression training, first aid and disaster response training focusing on disaster self-care and neighbor taking care of neighbor concepts providing aid in a disaster until responders can arrive and assume care.

For more information about the services offered please stop by the fire station or call us at 703-335-8845.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department emergency number is 911.

The Manassas Park Police Department is a full service Virginia State Accredited Law Enforcement Agency responsible for public safety in the City of Manassas Park, Virginia. The agency was awarded initial State Accreditation in January 2003.

The department resides in a state of the art building that was designed for today's needs and the future needs of growth. Dedicated in 2007, it was built to contain the emergency operations center for the city and houses an indoor firing range, E-911 communications center, exercise room, training rooms, conference rooms, in addition to all basic needs of a police department.

The Manassas Park Police Department is the sole provider for law enforcement services within the city. The department uses the Prince William County General District Courts for Traffic and Criminal cases and the Prince William/Manassas Adult Detention Center for the processing and holding of detainees.

The agency is comprised of 43 employees, including 32 who are sworn law enforcement officers. The department maintains a fleet of twenty-two fully equipped patrol and specialty service vehicles to provide twenty-four hour law enforcement coverage to its citizens. Day to day operations consist of providing highly visible and proactive patrols by uniformed officers, animal control agent, investigative services detectives, and communication specialist who operate the public safety answering point (E-911 Center) for Fire & Rescue, and Police services.

The Manassas Park Police department will handle approximately 25,000 calls for service this year. In keeping with its mission, the agency seeks to build an environment to enhance public safety and reduce the fear of crime through several programs and initiatives including programs such as the Neighborhood Watch, School Resource Officers, D.A.R.E., and Crime Solvers. Two school resource officers are assigned to both the middle and high school to build partners with the students to aid in crime prevention. The summertime "Do Away With Gangs" or "D.A.W.G." community program is geared towards keeping children occupied through positive activities.

For more information on the programs listed above please call 703-361-1136 or stop by the Police Department at 329 Manassas Drive.
