

The City of Manassas Park will be the premier Northern Virginia premier community in which to live, work, and raise a family. The city will be characterized as a safe, socially unified yet diverse community that offers comprehensive and quality educational opportunities; demands top environmental standards, and supports a specialized transit system to regional points of interests.

Please send comments or suggestions to suggestions@manassasparkva.gov